conduct social audit in order to monitor and evaluate the planning and implementation of the Amendment Rules, 2017 and to constitute an independent committee to investigate, report and find out solution for effective implementation of the Act of 2013.

2. The petitioner's case is that he and another associate with Human Rights Law Network, Sikkim Unit had conducted fact finding at specific villages falling under different constituencies in East, West and South Districts of Sikkim to check whether people falling under Antyodaya Anna Yojna (AAY), Priority Household (PHH) and Other Priority Household (OPHH)(General) categories were receiving food grain as per the provision of the Act of 2013. This fact finding was conducted at more than seventy households. It was found that although members of AAY, PHH and OPHH were entitled to certain benefits, but they were not provided with the same by the fair price shops. It is the petitioner's case that the data pertaining to the quantity of wheat provided to the beneficiaries in the official State portal of the Food Civil Supplies and Consumer Department and the reply to the query under the Right to Information Act dated 05.01.2021, are contradictory. Thus, the petitioner along with another had sent a representation through registered AD to the office of the respondent for proper implementation of food distribution in the State of Sikkim and for duly complying with the provisions of the Act of 2013.

3. On 10.12.2020, the petitioner had received a mail from the State of Sikkim in reply to the representation dated 21.11.2020 sent by him. The Respondent no.1 sought the names of fair price shops that were indulging in malpractices. It is the case of the petitioner that he submitted the names of the rural villages where the fact finding was conducted where such malpractices were being carried out by the fair price shops. However, despite sending the details, the State of Sikkim neither took any step nor issued any reply and it has been more than six months. The petitioner also refers to certain other information sought by some other persons and the reply thereto through which the petitioners are of the view that the State respondents have not conducted social audit till date.

5. We have perused the petition, the grounds, the prayers as well as the documents therewith.
